

Extraordinary Estuary

Sat

October 3

11:30am-2:30pm

Where rivers can mingle with the waters of the oceans, estuaries are created – but there’s so much more to the story. Find out what lives in our extraordinary estuaries and what makes the San Francisco estuary so vital during this special program. Activities will include dressing like a river otter, exploring earth’s water, and finding microscopic life of the Bay.